USDA Seeks Applications to Increase Rural Access to Education, Training and Health Care

Rural Development is making $71.7 million in grants available under the Distance Learning and Telemedicine Grant program. This program helps rural communities use telecommunications-based audio and video equipment to connect teachers, students, medical providers and rural residents with each other and the world. Applicants in rural areas of 20,000 people or less who provide education or health care services through telecommunications facilities are eligible to apply. Applications will be scored, reviewed and selected on a competitive basis.

APPLICATION DEADLINE - APRIL 10, 2020

Topics covered will include: Program compliance & documents ~ Application Requirements ~ Program Resources ~ Application Process Examples ~ Guidance toward submitting a complete application

Eligible Applicants Include: Most State and Local Governmental Entities ~ Federally Recognized Tribes ~ Non-Profits ~ For-profit businesses ~ Consortia of eligible entities

TO REGISTER: Please email Anne Herring anne.herring@usda.gov. Space is Limited! For program details, please call Richard Jenkins, General Field Representative for Telecommunications at 304-445-5369.
