About VRHA

The Virginia Rural Health Association (VRHA) is a 501(c)(3) not for profit organization working for the 2.5 million people who call rural Virginia their home.

Our mission is to improve the health of rural Virginians through education, advocacy, and fostering cooperative partnerships.

Over 1000 members strong, the people and organizations who make up VRHA represent a broad scope of health and healthcare: hospital executives, academic faculty, clinic staff, government officials, health professions students and more.

The 2021 Conference

In order to serve our members, we are seeking sponsors for our 2021 virtual event.

For over twenty years, the Virginia Rural Health Association has served as "The Voice for Rural Health in Virginia." Rural Health is different. Rural Americans face a unique combination of factors that create disparities in health care not found in urban areas. Economic factors, cultural and social differences, educational differences, lack of recognition by legislators and the isolation of living in remote rural areas all conspire to impede rural Americans in their struggle to lead a normal, healthy life.

If you have partnered with us in the past, we invite you to join us again this year. If you are new to VRHA - welcome! We look forward to sharing information about your services with our members.

Sincerely:

Beth O'Connor, M. Ed.
