Now accepting applications for 2022/2023 Student Representatives to the Board of Directors

The VRHA Student Representatives to the Board of Directors are expected to serve as a communication link between the current leaders of VRHA and the future ones. In order to meet this expectation, the students selected will need to interact with both the VRHA Board Members and students in a wide variety of health-related programs.

The students selected will help VRHA achieve its strategic goals, with particular emphasis on increasing awareness of VRHA and the benefits of VRHA membership among students.
Whenever possible, the students selected will represent different academic programs/professions. This will be a non-voting position on the board. Students selected will receive a complimentary registration and hotel room at the VRHA Annual Conference.

Applications must be submitted no later than May 5, 2022.

NRHA’s Annual Rural Health Conference is going hybrid

Along with the return to live educational and networking opportunities, we will offer a limited virtual option for those unable to attend in person at rates equating to 50 percent of our corresponding in-person rates.

Recordings and provided materials will be available for registered sessions through the virtual event environment for three months following the close of the event.

NRHA & Chartis launch rural hospital staffing crisis survey

Before the pandemic began, America began experiencing a health care worker shortage that’s only grown in the last two years. This supply and demand imbalance is expected to get worse unless something changes. NRHA and the Chartis Center for Rural Health are partnering on a new rural health safety net survey exploring staffing shortages at rural hospitals. Your input will help us better understand how the staffing crisis is impacting the delivery of care in rural communities and inform future research.

National Health Service Corps New Site Application Cycle Now Open

Open through May 5, 7:30 p.m. ET. This opportunity is for sites that have never been approved for NHSC, including sites that have applied and had their application denied or canceled, or are currently an inactive NHSC site due to expiration or compliance issues.

The NHSC is a federal government program to provide scholarships and student loan repayment to health care professionals in exchange for a service commitment to practice in designated areas across the country with a shortage of health care professionals.

Interested sites and treatment facilities should review the Site Reference Guide for additional details on becoming NHSC approved.

NHSC New Site Application Webinar - March 31, 1-2:30 p.m. ET

COVID-19 & Rural Health Clinics

Identifies federal COVID-19-related programs that can help Rural Health Clinics (RHCs), as well as telehealth changes in effect during the COVID-19 public health emergency.

Expanding COVID-19 Response in Rural Communities through Rural Health Clinics

An overview of Health Resources and Services Administration programs to help Rural Health Clinics (RHCs) supports COVID-19 testing and vaccination. Includes resources and contacts related to this work.

Benchmarking Telehealth Usage in Virginia

From October through December 2021, the Virginia Telehealth Network led a multipronged “state of the state” of telehealth in Virginia research initiative. Efforts included the following:

- An initial survey of active licensed health care providers. Organization-level surveys also were developed for and distributed through the Virginia Health Care Association and Virginia Association of Free and Charitable Clinics.
- An in-depth follow-up survey was sent to respondents that opted in, segmented for behavioral/mental health care professionals and all other health care providers.
- Qualitative interviews with health care professionals about their use of telehealth throughout the pandemic.
This VIRTUAL LIVE Bootcamp series covers what revenue cycle and coding/billing staff in CAHs need to know related to their documentation, professional and facility coding, and medical billing processes. It will describe the vital areas that affect all members of the CAH workforce related to CPT, HCPCS-II, & ICD-10-CM coding and billing; focusing on their impact on revenue, facility mission, population and public health reporting. Bootcamp will occur virtually on March 29-30, 2022.

Join CMS for April Webinar on Rural Health Quality

The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services is pleased to invite the public to attend the upcoming webinar: “Rural Health Quality: How CMS Initiatives Improve How We Measure and Address Gaps in Care.” This presentation will highlight the unique challenges surrounding quality measurement in rural settings, and how CMS is working to address these issues to ensure equitable care is provided to all Americans regardless of where they reside. CMS will host this presentation twice.
