Community Health Center of the New River Valley awarded planning grant to create a dental residency program

The Community Health Center of the New River Valley (CHCNRV) has been awarded a $500,000, 2-year HRSA planning grant to develop a Teaching Health Center Residency Program in dentistry. The grant will support the work of building a program, developing a training curriculum, recruiting clinical faculty, retooling workflow to integrate residents, and achieving accreditation.

Upon completing the grant and receipt of dental accreditation, the CHCNRV will formally become a Teaching Health Center and begin accepting dentists to complete a one-year post-graduate rotation.

CHCNRV was one of only two grant recipients in Virginia among the 46 awarded nationwide.

NRHA's Rural Health Nurse Certification Program - Now Enrolling!

NRHA's Rural Health Nurse Certification Program is now enrolling for its first Cohort! This multifaceted course is designed to equip rural nurses with the information they need and a network of colleagues to help them provide high quality care in rural settings while recognizing and celebrating their vast skill sets.

Just as orthopedic nurses are skilled at caring for the musculoskeletal system, and cardiac nurses specialize in caring for the heart, rural nurses are skilled at knowing a little bit about everything and balancing the needs of their patients with the often-limited resources in small and sometimes isolated parts of the country.

Cohort begins May 24th at 5:00 pm EST.

Must be currently employed as a RN or LPN/LVN in rural healthcare.
